City Council votes to lease Campbell High School site

By ROBERT HOF

WITH A lengthy court case and weeks of hearings behind it, the Campbell City Council Monday voted to master lease Campbell High School for at least five years.

The council also approved four other recommendations of a study committee, including having the city keep control of the closed school's open space, cafeteria, boys' gym, pool and auditorium, so the city could possibly reserve them for public use part of the time.

Still to be decided by the council in the next month or so are prices for subleasing the site to groups and tenants. The Campbell Union High School District board is expected to OK the lease with the city July 22, though it requires a 5-0 vote of its board.

The council also voted Monday to have Babet Financial Corporation of Los Gatos act as leasing agent to find tenants and to have the city attorney determine costs of running the facility and possible revenues to offset those costs.

DAN BRYANT of Babet said he thought there would be no trouble finding tenants since the proposed asking price per square foot, about 16 to 25 cents, is quite a bit less than the average price for such a facility around the valley. He said the site is worth at least 30 to 35 cents a square foot.

The school district is asking about $188,000 per year for the whole site.

A city study shows that if the city keeps the facilities mentioned for itself and charges 20.6 cents a square foot, it would have no new costs. That figure includes lease, custodial, utility, insurance and management expenses plus 15 per cent factor.

Councilmen Norm Paul and Bill Podgorsek suggested the city lease the other facilities to non-profit groups for 20.6 cents a square foot and 25 cents to profit-making groups, so the city wouldn't have to pay anything itself. A previous plan called for charging non-profit groups 16 cents and others 20 cents. The city study shows charging 16.8 cents would cost the city almost $50,000 a year, and charging 18.5 cents would cost about $21,000.

Any "profit" could go toward equipment or unexpected expenses,, said Paul.

The two councilmen's suggestions weren't passed by the council, but city staff will consider their comments when they make their recommendations on lease prices.

Bryant said he had talked to 30 prospective tenants face to face and said at least twice that many are interested.

Those who have expressed interest in specific facilities are Montessori Schools, Sawyer Schools, Foxcorp, Santa Clara Valley Education Council, San Jose Christian Schools, Adult Independence Development Center of San Clara County, Council of Arts of the Greater San Jose Area, San Jose Children's Musical Theatre, Academy Press and the YMCA.

A CROWD of about 25 to 30 showed up for the vote, with a half-dozen speaking in favor of the city master leasing the site.

Under the lease, the city probably wouldn't have to make any payments until January 1 of next year so it could establish a fund from rents. They hope tenants will move in by September. It would also allow the city to discontinue the lease if it gives six-month notice, and the city would be given nine months notice if the school district wanted to cancel the lease.

A separate agreement would have to be made with the school district on what equipment the district will leave at the high school.

The vote on the lease and the other recommendations was 4-0, with Councilman Dean Chamberin abstaining because he's employed by the high school district.

Banded together in their quest for a world record last week were, from left, Campbellites Patty Britt, 9; Kathy Britt, 10; Matthew Anderson, 11; and Richard Britt, 13. Matthew and Richard helped 19-year-old David Blanchard loop together 27,000 little rubber bands to make one big one four city blocks long. It was a long stretch of work, though — about 14 hours. Action unlikely

Closure appeal denied by judge

By ANNE HOUGHTELING

FURTHER LEGAL attempts to force reopening of Campbell High School appeared unlikely this week as both sides reacted to an appeals judge's decision.

On June 26 Judge John T. Racanelli of the State Court of Appeals in San Francisco denied an appeals request from the city of Campbell and the Friends of Campbell High School, a citizens group. They were seeking a rehearing of Santa Clara County Superior Court Judge Peter Anello's decision April 28 which ruled that the school district had acted properly in closing the high school.

Racanelli in his written decision did not elaborate on the reasons for denial of the appeal, according to Campbell City Councilman Bill Podgorsek.

Pokgorsek said regarding further legal maneuvers, "In my opinion, there's nothing, nothing we can do."

He qualified that, though, by adding that "the only way to do anything is to elect a new (school) board."

CAMPBELL City Manager Bob Stephens said he did not think the city and the Friends of Campbell High School would try other legal action.

"There's always a higher court," he said, "but I don't think anyone is going to try it."

Karen Crocker of the Friends of Campbell High School said her group was "very disappointed" at the appeals judge's decision not to hear the case.

"The decision had nothing to do with justice," Crocker said.

She added the group's attorney said the Friends of Campbell High School could possibly win their case eventually, but that it would be only a "moral victory." The school would probably not have to reopen anyway, she said, since it already closed its doors after classes ended last month.

District Superintendent Nicholas Montesano commented, "As I said before, I feel the court is the right place to go to decide differences.

"Now that the court has decided, it's time for people to use their efforts to find a productive use for the site."

The district Board of Trustees Oct. 23 decided to close the high school because of declining enrollment.

The Friends of Campbell High School filed suit against the district in February. When Anello ruled in favor of the district, the Campbell City Council decided to join the citizens group in appealing the ruling.

Tentative budgets adopted for schools

The Campbell elementary and high school districts have adopted their tentative 1980-81 budgets.

Final budgets will be adopted in August.

Campbell Union School District trustees adopted a $13.03 million tentative general fund budget (down $780,901 from last year), a $1.1 million tentative building fund budget (down $638,510) and a $591,824 tentative cafeteria fund budget (down $117,881).

Campbell Union High School District trustees adopted a $28.9 million tentative general fund budget. Last year's final general fund budget was $29.9 million.

Trustees also adopted a $1.9 million building fund budget, compared with last year's $2.1 million and a $2.3 million special reserve tentative budget (the same as last year's).

The 1980-81 tentative cafeteria account is placed at $1.04 million, compared to last year's final figure of $1 million.

Improved SP service slated

Bus-rail pass planned for area commuters

County Transit officials say they're working on a special new transit pass to make it easier for South Bay commuters to transfer back and forth between Southern Pacific commuter trains and county buses.

In addition, SP and the state Transportation Department last week started their 10-year agreement to preserve and improve SP service on the peninsula between San Jose and San Francisco.

Transit District spokesman Bill Sullivan said they are "trying to develop some sort of a bus-rail pass" that will let transit riders use both modes of transit but pay only one fare.

For the time being, a 30 percent discount on SP that has been offered by Santa Clara and San Mateo counties "is good through the first of August," although the discounts are due to be dropped at that time since the counties are participating in an $11 million subsidy program to cover SP's operating deficit, Sullivan said.

County Supervisor Rod Diridon said with a bus-rail transfer "it'll be possible for someone to take a bus from the Almaden Valley" area of San Jose "and get on SP in downtown San Jose and ride up to the electronics companies" in northern Sahta Clara County.

Transit spokesman Sullivan said the bus-rail pass is "the most feasible" alternative and will give "real incentive" to transit riders to use both buses and the train.

A viable Southern Pacific commute service will help in "reducing the demand on the highways in the Bay area" Sullivan said.

Diridon said "air pollution will be reduced and energy will be saved" by "getting people off the roads" and getting them onto public transit if mass transit systems such as Southern Pacific are improved.

County Transit spokesman Frank Lara says the new "counter-commute service," part of the state's 10-year agreement with SP, will mean "more trains coming south in the morning from San Francisco and north in the evening." That will benefit people trying to get to work in the electronics industry-dominated Silicon Valley area, he says.

The new reverse commute service is "a few months off" because "all the details" in terms of schedules have to be worked out, Lara said.

In addition, as part of the agreement, there will be "additional train stations within Santa Clara County which will make service much more attractive for people that work in the Lockheed area" of Sunnyvale and nearby communities, said Lara.

One train station has been proposed for the Lawrence Expressway in Sunnyvale with an additional station being planned for somewhere in Mountain View.

Lara says there is "an increased use of the Southern Pacific by the commuter as an alternative "to use of their automobile which is so energy-inefficient" compared to the use of the commute train.

The state Transportation Department and SP recently completed negotiations which would guarantee and improve service provided by the train company.

As part of the agreement, the State will provide an $11 million subsidy for Southern Pacific to cover its estimated yearly operating deficit, while SP has agreed to drop its request of the Interstate Commerce Commission to end commute train service on the Peninsula.

Meredith adds 3 Albuquerque papers to its holdings

Meredith Corporation, owners of Meredith Sun Newspapers in Santa Clara County, has entered into an agreement to purchase Modern Press Inc. of Albuquerque, N.M.

Modern Press publishes three weekly newspapers with a combined circulation of 110,000 and is the largest commercial printer in the state.

Meredith did not disclose the purchase price of the New Mexico company.

Thomas E. Lewis, who had been the major stockholder of Modern Press, will continue as publisher of the newspapers.

Fred Stines, a vice president of Meredith's Publishing Group and general manager of book and newspaper publishing, said his company was attracted to Albuquerque by the growth of the area.

Stines said Modern Press would operate as a part of the Meredith Newspapers unit.

The newspapers published by Modern Press are the Albuquerque News, the Valencia County News-Bulletin and Focus, a paper that serves Kirtland Air Force Base near Albuquerque.

In addition to the Albuquerque-area papers and the 18 weekly newspapers Meredith publishes in Santa Clara County, the company owns 11 newspapers in the Los Angeles area.

The Des Moines, Iowa-based company also publishes magazines (including Apartment Life, Better Homes and Gardens, Sail and Successful Farming) and Better Homes and Gardens Books, and is engaged in contract printing, broadcasting and real estate marketing.

Kids offer some valuable tips on being a teacher or a veterinarian

THE daughters of Bernice Dow of Campbell recently wrote about their "career goals." Their advice may be valuable for prospective teachers and veterinarians of any age.

HOW TO BE A GOOD TEACHER

Try to discipline the children so they will learn, but don't be too harsh. Try to do the best teaching that you can. In college study very hard. Learn to take all the responsibility that it takes to be a teacher.

Give the children plenty time to do the work you give them. If the children are sometimes impossible, talk to someone about it. Be kind and considerate to your class. Sometimes play games so their minds can rest awhile.

Go on at least two field trips (if you can afford it) with your children. If kids need special help, show them that you care by helping them.

HOW TO BE A VET

1. A cat is a mammal. So is a dog. Cats and dogs have backbones.

2. A cat does not have its baby from an egg. They have it without an egg.

3. Dogs and cats are lovable. Some cats are trained to do special things.

4. Dogs are trained to do special things; most dogs are trained that way.

5. The Dobermans are cute little things when they are small, but mean when big (sometimes).

6. Cleaning your dog is easy but your cat does not like water at all. (So don't try it).

7. Some hounds are hunters. Most hounds, when they cry a deep sound, are badly treated. It is obvious that when the water is going "splash, splash" or something, your dog has got something.

Lose something? Just find it in that ol' 'Safe Place' . . .

By PAT SAFFORD

EVERY household has at least one . . . it's called a "safe place."

It's that spot (or spots) you use to tuck something away when you want to make sure it's safe from tampering fingers. And it's safe alright — because even you can't find it.

In the past year I've stashed away in a safe place . . .

- A set of drum sticks for my youngest son so his nephew couldn't get ahold of them again and use them to dig in the garden.
- A box of cupcakes I wanted to safeguard over the weekend so they could be used in the kid's lunches the next week.
- Three parts to a 2,000 piece jigsaw puzzle I found under the couch. The idea was to put the missing pieces back in the puzzle box . . . another item I haven't been able to find.
- Six pairs of shoe laces.
- Four spools of black thread.
- The cat's record of immunizations.
- A minimum of five brand new C-size batteries and
- The registration numbers of about four Reader's Digest Sweepstakes . . . give or take a contest.

THESE items aren't lost forever. They're only misplaced until we move. Then they'll turn up . . . along with a couple of dozen other items I forgot I had put away in a "safe place."

By then, most of the things can just be thrown away . . . especially the cupcakes.

The Safe Place Syndrome was brought to mind recently when I was thinking about Grandpa Parsons, that feisty gentleman of 90 who came to live with us years ago.

Grandpa died just six weeks short of his 94th birthday but he left us a special legacy of spirit . . . of stories about the Good Old Days of the late 1800's . . . and of the ultimate in safe place stories.

In Grandpa's case it was his hearing aid.

After two decades of progressive hearing loss he finally gave in and got himself a hearing aid . . . a "confounded contraption" as he would call it . . . that he promptly put away in a "safe place" and lost.

For years . . . while he was living alone and liking it . . . we made a real effort to find the hearing aid; he just couldn't remember where he put it.

We never found it.

THEN, IN the late 1960s, Grandpa could no longer live alone because of health problems and decided he'd rather live with us than go to one of those "old folks homes" the social service people in Santa Cruz were trying to put him in. He was more than welcome to come to our home (as we'd always told him) but I was worried about the culture shock he'd face going from a peaceful existence to a home with four young children with their constant activity and nerve wracking noise (it often wracked my nerves).

I needn't have worried.

About two weeks after he came to live with us I heard him talking on the phone to one of his old friends.

"The children are lovely," he said, with obvious pride in his voice. "They play and play together and roll around on the floor having a great time."

I knew immediately he was talking about the knock down drag out fight my two oldest children had held on the living room floor the day before. (I broke it up and sent them both to their rooms to cool off.)

It took us about three weeks to get the old house cleaned up, painted and wallpapered to be converted to a rental house. Along the way I found Grandpa's hearing aid tucked away in a "safe place" atop a cabinet in the dining room. It had been "lost" for about seven years.

What to do with the hearing aid? . . . For 90 years Grandpa had gotten along without it.

On one hand, why deprive someone from all the sights and sounds of life they can enjoy.

But, on the other hand, would it drive Grandpa straight out of his mind to "enjoy" the sights and sounds he was now living with . . . four children under 11 years of age?

I wrestled with that knotty problem for about a week.

Then I tucked away the hearing aid . . . in a safe place.

School thanks 'generous' store

EDITOR:

WE WOULD like to have you print a public thank you to Food Fair Stores. Recently the Special Education Summer School Staff of Campbell Union School District planned a picnic for our Learning Handicapped students on Friday, June 27. We wanted to get a discount from Food Fair on Hacienda Ave. — we needed to buy hot dogs, buns, and potato chips for 45 children, four teachers and four aides.

We contacted Jerry Lumg at the Mt. View store to make arrangements for the discount. Instead of giving us a discount, he donated all the hot dogs, buns, and chips to us.

This gesture of generosity is greatly appreciated by all of us who are conducting the Special Education Summer School at Hazelwood School in Campbell. We hope that you will print an appropriate article in the next issue of the Campbell Press thanking Jerry Lumg and Rusty, who is the manager of the Hacienda Avenue store.

Subcommittee support

Rent control to come before council again

THE ISSUE of rent control will undergo another round of discussion next week as the Campbell City Council is scheduled to hear the recommendations of a rent control subcommittee.

The subcommittee, made up of Mayor Rusty Hammer and Councilman Bill Podgorsek, had not yet drawn up its recommendations earlier this week.

The council convenes at 8 p.m. Monday, July 14, in the Council Chamber at City Hall, 75 N. Central Ave.

The rent control question has been debated several times in Campbell since last fall, when the council first appointed a subcommittee to study tenants' allegations of rent gouging.

The submittee originally came out against rent control. But protests from tenants prompted the council to set the subcommittee back in motion.

In April, the subcommittee presented several recommendations, including a proposal for a rent mediation board. It also recommended that the rent control issue be placed on the November ballot and that rents be frozen at their February 1980 levels until voters decided the fate of state ballot Proposition 10, which would have allowed rent control only by a vote of the people.

But a council vote on those recommendations was halted in May. At a special session it was discovered that because of conflict of interest and absences, not enough councilmembers were able to vote to enact an emergency rent control to take force before the June 3 state election.

After the defeat of Proposition 10, a tenant appeared before the council to remind members the rent control issue had been left up in the air. At that, the subcommittee was reactivated.

Recommendations from two other council subcommittees are planned for the July 14 agenda.

They will submit proposals on the Campbell Chamber of Commerce's plans for a wine and art festival in September and traffic problems stemming from Tower Records on South Bascom Avenue.

ALSO ON the agenda:

- The council is scheduled to fill a vacancy on the Civic Improvement Commission;
- A proposal to require use permits for pawn shops, pool halls and arcades; and
- A date for adoption of the city's final 1980-81 budget will be set.

Moratorium to expire

Condominium conversion ordinance to get review

A PROPOSED condominium conversion ordinance will be discussed at a Campbell City Council-Planning Commission study session Wednesday, July 16.

The draft ordinance will be up for review at 9 p.m. at the Campbell Senior Center, 70 N. Central Ave.

The City Council imposed a moratorium on converting apartments to condominiums Aug. 13 last year. The moratorium is set to expire on that date this year.

As now written, the ordinance would set structural standards for conversion. Requirements for smoke detectors and noise-proofing are among them.

Under the ordinance, tenants would have to be informed of an apartment owner's plans to convert. Upon requesting a city application for conversion, the owner would have to submit proof renters had been informed.

Renters who have not fallen behind in their rent would have at least 180 days from the date of notification to find other housing. In addition, renters would be given first option to buy into the condominium.

Apartment owners would be barred from using frequent rent increases to force tenants out.

THOUGH THE draft ordinance states its purpose to be the insuring of a "reasonable balance" of rental and ownership housing, it now contains no mention of citywide apartment vacancy rates. Several Bay Area cities, including Sunnyvale and Walnut Creek, ban conversions if the vacancy rate falls below a certain level.

Phil Stafford of the Campbell Planning Department said the staff is reviewing those cities' ordinances. The condominium conversion subcommittee has asked that the final ordinance have a "little more substance" than the present one, he said.

A study session on the Campbell Museum will precede the conversion study session. At 7:30 p.m. the City Council and the museum study group will talk about providing the facility with a permanent, paid staff member, according to museum curator Jeanette Watson.

Local students win top awards in high school math competition

SIXTY CAMPBELL Union High School District students proved their prowess in math by winning top awards in the third annual district-wide math contest.

More than 300 students in math classes from pre-algebra to calculus in all eight district schools matched their problem-solving skills in tests prepared by 26 math teachers.

"Although we gave plaques, medals and ribbons to students who scored highest in the tests, the increased enthusiasm for studying math made everyone a winner," said Alice Mitchell, district math supervisor.

The contest which was open to all students was divided into two levels — regular and advanced — and into six categories — pre-algebra, algebra I and II, geometry, trig-analysis and calculus.

A trophy, engraved with the winning student's name, was awarded to the school placing first in each level. Doug Rose, Westmont High School, won top honors in level two. Two brothers, Keith and Ken Higashihara, Camden, tied for the honor award in level I.

The hour-long problem-solving tests were followed by a social hour during which contestants consumed 80 dozen cookies baked by district foods classes while teachers corrected and scored tests. Solutions to problems were posted so students could compare their work.

GOLD, SILVER and bronze medals were given for first, second and third places and ribbons for fourth through tenth places. The awards included:

In pre-algebra — first, Steve Cirimele, Del Mar; second, Larry Tavarez, Campbell; third, Rick Rinauso, Branham; ribbons to: Westmont students Tom Holt, Aneda Chavez, Elvira Valle; Leigh students Audrey Roy, Chris Weston, David Heathcoat, Sheri Arigoni, Branham.

In algebra I — first, Ken Higashihara, Camden; second, Stewart Kramer, Del Mar; third, Patrick Jay, Blackford; ribbons to: Campbell students Lance Mucenieks, Scott Garner; Camden students Su Sun Bal, April Linton, David Moore, Westmont; Scott Smith, Del Mar; Jay Hayes, Prospect.

In geometry — first, Keith Higashihara, Camden; second, David Wittry, Leigh; third, Steve Wells, Campbell; ribbons to: Westmont students Kenneth Ho, Eric Turner, Dean Holth; Campbell students Mike Parrish, Charles Delano; Steve Shattery, Del Mar; Pat Silagy, Leigh.

Algebra II — first, Maria Mattila, Prospect; second, David Witherow, Prospect; third, Jeff Selis, Leigh; ribbons to: Branham students Jim Kobori, Sheri McCarroll, Tom Halderman; Leigh students Lauren Keller, Suzy Morris, David Forster, Prospect; Scott Malcolm, Westmont.

Craig Harmer, Del Mar; second, Lani Ota, Blackford; third, Brian Chapman, Branham; ribbons to: Westmont students Cheryl Stocking, Garrett Turner; Prospect students Dan Thompson, Dean Anderson; Earl Wiggins, Campbell; Karl Rew, Blackford; Judy Winter, Branham.

School district seeking tenants who want to lease Quito School

THE CAMPBELL Union School District is looking for a tenant for Quito School, one of the district's six schools closed because of declining enrollment.

June 26 the district's governing board voted to lease the school on Quito Avenue in San Jose for a minimum of $22,653 a year. Bids from prospective tenants will be accepted up to Aug. 14.

In April, the board decided to sell Parkway School on Saratoga Avenue. It also voted to lease San Tomas, Sherman Oaks and Moorpark schools and to investigate the possibility of eventually having Cypress School used for senior housing.

At the June 26 meeting, the board decided to keep leasing six rooms at Cypress to the Children's Home Society through June 1981.

Newsbriefs

Baseball fever spreading

More than 1,000 local competitions are taking place throughout the nation to choose finalists for the national Pitch, Hit and Run Program. In Campbell, boys and girls eight to 13 can compete July 12 at 9 a.m. in John D. Morgan Park.

Youngsters will compete in the three key baseball skills: pitching for accuracy, hitting for distance and running bases, says David Powell of the Campbell Community Services Office.

Entrants must fill out forms available at local participating Burger King restaurants and the Community Services Office at City Hall, 75 N. Central Ave.

Campbell gets tax share

Campbell last month received $12,154 in cigarette tax, $39,345 in "in-lieu" motor vehicle license fees and $24,653 in highway users taxes as part of its share of the statewide total, according to California Controller Kenneth Cory.

June building tops a year ago

The Campbell Building Department issued more permits than it did June a year ago, according to department figures. Last month, a total of 55 permits were issued for construction valued at $2.1 million. In June 1979 47 permits representing approximately $1 million were granted.

Last month, the greatest number of permits, 15, were granted for reroofing. Permits to build single-family houses followed with 12 permits.

County in need of plumber

Santa Clara County Supervisor Rod Diridon is seeking a journeyman plumber from his district, which includes Campbell, to serve on the Plumber Board of Examiners. The post is voluntary and involves attending one evening meeting a month. Those interested may call the Clerk of the Board Office, 299-2323.

Local FFA member participates in leadership conference

Greg Emery, member of the Campbell Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, recently returned from the four-day FFA officer leadership training conference held at Sierra College in Rocklin, Calif. Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emery of San Jose, earned the right to participate when he was elected regional FFA vice president of the south coast region last spring.

Piano may be within reach

With the $378 in pledges raised during the Campbell Senior Center's Walk-A-Golden mile walkathon, the center may have enough money to buy a piano they have wanted for a long time. This year's pledges combined with those from the two previous years may be enough, the center says.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

Even with the slower, safer speeds on American highways, automobile accidents still account for the nation's largest number of accidental deaths.

Such accidents may involve complex or multiple injuries, and priorities for their care must be considered by the first-aider.

Someone who comes upon the scene of an auto accident should first turn off the engine of the car involved if it is still running.

The victim or victims should be moved ONLY if they would be endangered by remaining in the vehicle–such as if the car is on fire, if gasoline has spilled and there is a danger of fire, or if the area is congested and there is a strong likelihood of a second accident.

Check the patient's breathing and pulse and control any bleeding. If there is any chance of a head or neck injury or fracture of an extremity, do not unnecessarily move a victim.

If no pulse or no breathing are present, or if there is significant bleeding, it may become necessary to move the victim in order to bring these life-threatening circumstances under control.

All fractures should be splinted and the victim's head should be supported on a rigid board before the victim is transported to a medical facility.

This is the fifth in a series of first aid articles presented through the cooperation of the Emergency Care Center of O'Connor Hospital at Campbell on 1650 Winchester Boulevard near Hamilton Avenue.

Fires pose a double threat

SANTA CLARA County health officer Bernice Giansiracusa warns that the current brush fire season holds a double threat of fire damage and the danger of inhaling smoke from poison oak and ivy plants.

The smoke from the poisonous smoke causes allergic reaction in seven out of 10 persons, according to Dr. Giansiracusa. The substance that causes the reaction is called urishiol. It is passed through smoke and she warns persons to avoid breathing the fumes. An allergic person may develop respiratory problems, she said.

Giansiracusa decided to issue a special warning after two young children became very ill from exposure to a poison oak fire in Santa Clara County. Exposure to poison oak and poison ivy is higher during summer months because of increased brush fire dangers in the foothills.

New road planned off Bascom between Fung Lum, Giannini

The Campbell Planning Commission July 1 approved a new parking lot design for Fung Lum restaurant and the Giannini Building on South Bascom to allow room for a new road.

The city has decided to construct a road off South Bascom Avenue to lead to five acres of undeveloped land behind Fung Lum, 1815 S. Bascom Ave., and the restaurant's neighbor, the Giannini Building.

An assessment district has been set up that would bill nearby businesses for most of the $574,000 it will cost to build the road.

The new road, to run between Fung Lum and the Giannini Building, would require the owners of the restaurant to sacrifice 28 parking spaces. The Planning Commission's July 1 vote takes away 28 spaces in the path of the planned road and replaces them with a new parking area for both the restaurant and Giannini building behind the building.

According to Bill Helms of the Public Works Department, the road should be finished in November.

On another agenda item July 1, the commission voted to recommend approval for a developer's application to construct a 31,600-square foot, three-story office building on a 43,400-square foot lot at 429 Llewellyn Ave.

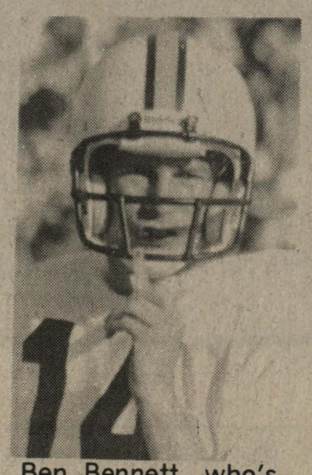
THE EXPERTS have compared their statistics. They've discussed their individual tyles and gauged the performances of their teams. But still, they've been unable to determine which high school quarterback is the best — Marty Mornhinweg or Ben Bennett!

Well, the experts, and everyone else in the valley, will get the opportunity to decide just that issue when the two outstanding quarterbacks will meet for the first time in the sixth annual Santa Clara County All-Star Football Game, set for Tuesday, Aug. 5, at San Jose's Spartan Stadium.



Ben Bennett, who's best?

Mornhinweg, who led Oak Grove to back-to-back league championships and a Central Coast Section title in 1978, will lead the South team into action in the game and Bennett, who sparked Peterson to consecutive championships, will spearhead the North.

The controversy has raged for the past two years — which quarterback is the best. Well, don't get the idea that a single all-star football game will bring an end to that two-year old dialogue.

And it shouldn't! Mornhinweg and Bennett are each outstanding quarterbacks in their own right and had exceptional high school careers. They should have the opportunity to play in this all-star game for the fun of it, and not be burdened with the added pressure of proving superiority.

Neither should be judged on his all-star showing. The high school football fans of the area should just sit back and enjoy the show, and judge the two quarterbacks on what they've done in their careers — not on what they do in a single game in the off-season.

HEADING into the weekend series with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Willie McCovey's final series before beginning his five year wait for a locker in Cooperstown, San Francisco Giants' manager Dave Bristol announced that he wasn't going to start McCovey in his final game as a Major Leaguer on Sunday.

Bristol's reasoning: "I can't play him Sunday with (Jerry) Reuss pitching."

That makes a lot of sense. The last time the Giants faced Reuss, McCovey was not in the line-up and San Francisco was no-hit. How much worse could McCovey do?

Bristol is acting like a manager whose club is still in the pennant race — not like the manager of a mediocre club 10 games off the pace at the all-star break, and lucky to be there!...

AND SPEAKING of the All-Star Game, how could Chuck Tanner ever have selected Ed Whitson as the man to represent the San Francisco Giants on the National League squad?

Tanner bypassed a hot-hitting Jack Clark and the sentimental favorite, McCovey, to select Whitson, admittedly throwing well right now but still just a .500 pitcher.

Whitson — now there's a real hometown favorite! Can you imagine looking forward to watching him pitch? I'll bet the American Leaguers are!...

WHAT'S HAPPENED to the All-Star Game? Is it the fan vote (there's got to be something wrong with a system that neglects last year's co-MVP and the National League's leading hitter, Keith Hernandez of the St. Louis Cardinals) or are the players just not what they used to be?

But for someone who grew up on All-Star Games loaded with names like Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle, Juan Marichal, Sandy Koufax, Whitey Ford, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson, Henry Aaron, Stan Musial and Yogi Berra, it's just not the same to see guys like Dave Lopes, Bucky Dent and Whitson representing Major League Baseball as the best in the game.

VanWettering tears to main event victory

PICTURE THIS:

Tim "GB" Rohrkemper of Campbell works hard to edge out Mike Dempsey and Harry Huber of San Jose in the first heat race on Friday, June 27, at Fremont Raceway. Another Campbell driver, Gerald Brown, pours it on to win heat two. Heat three brings a victory for Phyllis Horne, who defeats Craig Forney and Jon Ferrel, both of San Jose.

In the three-car trophy dash, brown breaks ahead and wins easily, with Rohrkemper and Horne following.

With every driver pleased by their performances so far, they line up for the night's main event for the Volkswagen class. At the end of 12 laps, the winner is. . . .

Rohrkemper? Horne? Brown? Forney? Huber?

No, Jack VanWettering!

Handling the seven-turn "FreWay" road course as if he designed it himself, VanWettering tore up the track to take the checkered flag with the win in the main. Second was Brown, followed by Les Jump of Campbell, the only non-"Bug" driver in the division, in third (Jump pilots a Karmann Ghia).

The three top finishers in the main are also one-two-three in the points standings: VanWettering with 959, Brown with 868 and Jump with 843.

In the super-sedan bracket, the winners were Dan Hitchcock, Jim Meeks, Jim Meeks and Jim Meeks. Meeks also broke Tres Gurney's short-lived track record with a lap of 18.663 seconds in his supercharged Datsun.

HITCHCOCK won the first heat, finishing ahead of Glenn Carson and Tom Corey of San Jose. Meeks won the three remaining races, topping fellow Datsun-pusher Gary Dillard and VW-driver Dean Nelson. All three drivers race out of San Jose.

Meeks, Dillard and Nelson finished in the same order in the trophy dash. In the super main, Meeks took the win with Dillard, Dennis Golobic of Sunnyvale, Tom Corey of San Jose and Carson following.

Points standings in the division find Golobic's lead cut to 31 points ahead of Meeks. In order, the leaders are Golobic (817), Meeks (786) and Carson (784). Dillard has 732 and Mike Walsh of San Jose, out of the running this week, remains with 673.

In the Datsun and Toyota-dominated A sedan class, Lee Shurtleff of Milpitas extended his points lead to 92 with wins in the main event and the second heat.

The first heat went to Terry Boggs, with Dave Dewey and Jerry Casado in second and third. Shurtleff rolled in ahead of San Jose's John Lott and Curt Jordan in heat two. Dewey claimed the trophy by finishing in front of Shurtleff, Lott and Boggs.

The main event was all Shurtleff's, as he rode across the finish line ahead of Dewey, Bob Martin and Ted Shurtleff.

In the points standings, Lee Shurtleff (874) holds first, with Martin (782) in second, Casado (769) third and Dewey (762) fourth.

Action resumes at Fremont Raceway on Friday, July 11, after the one-week lay-off for Independence Day. Racing begins at 8 p.m. Admission is $4 for adults, $2.50 for teens and $1 for children.

'Sox all-star tournament set

THE CAMPBELL Bobby Sox minor division all-stars will begin their quest for a berth in the Nationals Saturday evening at their home park when they open all-star tournament play against San Anselmo.

Saturday's tournament opener for Campbell is set to start at 8 p.m.

The eight-team, double elimination tournament is scheduled to run through July 16, with the winner advancing to the National tourney in Buena Park.

The Campbell Bobby Sox all-star squad is composed of Rita Alam, Kimberly Bryant, Suzanne Carlson, Chimene Hickey, Marlene Henrickson, Lori Hughes, Lesa Landry, Lori Loftus, Dana Lucky, Christine Lugas, Marta Mortensen, Corinne Peralez, Anita Prizzi, Kim Rees, Lisa Bracking, Colleen Shannon, Elizabeth Carrion, Kimberly Albert, Kimberly Smith and Kathleen Sullivan.

Betty Hick is the team's manager and Milt Gregorio and Ray Peralez her coaches. Pat Hughes will serve as chaperone.

Umpiring not main course for Butler

By DAVID JACOBS

IN THE heat of sporting emotion when the rewards for umpire service seem dubious, seldom is there a consensus of affection for the man in blue.

If you were to ask Merle Butler about the bad guy on the field, he'd slowly grin and tell you that the closest friend that an umpire has is his own counterpart.

Of course, it's Merle's job to know about such things.

He has 19 years of experience and, since 1979, the distinction of being one of four Senior Deputies in the Amateur Softball Association of America. It's pleasure and work, he admits, with responsibilities that required Butler to coordinate training clinics for umpires throughout the Rocky Mountain, Northwest and Pacific Coast regions, including Hawaii.

He has also organized clinics at military bases in England and Germany, through the USAF in Europe in 1977.

This year Butler said he enjoyed touring bases in Greece, Italy and Spain where softball is very popular, and played with great conviction.

Umpiring is not the main course for Butler, at 44-years-old, but as he says, "people recognize me as being associated with softball."

ACTUALLY Butler is the Director of Parks and Recreation in Cupertino. Last year he was awarded a citation from the Parks and Recreation Society.

His 23½ acre McClellan Ranch Park Natural and Rural Preserve headquarters gives the perfect country setting to shuffle paperwork and still ingest the ASA rulebook.

Working the games is still a favorite for Butler. This year he umpired for the Santa Clara County junior colleges and for the San Jose Rainbow women's professional softball team. He's the only person to have umpired both pro and amateur world tournaments.

Butler never aspired to be a big league umpire, he recalled, because there is too much travel.

"It takes a long time to get through the minors, and that's a tedious and difficult life."

For a person who is a sports enthusiast, umpiring is a "way to remain involved," he said.

Butler officiates basketball and football, and recommends basketball as the most exciting and most difficult ("There are a lot of emotions involved").

SOFTBALL is recognized as the largest team participation sport in the United States.

Since the ASA was formed in 1933, the game has moved into world-wide status. There were 26 National tournaments last year alone.

One of these tournaments was the National Sports Festival in Colorado Springs, in which Merle umpired. This was part of the World Games that will be coming to the Santa Clara Valley in 1981, as part of the training for prospective Olympic athletes, according to Butler.

With the number of people playing softball, whether slow pitch or fast, it's good to know that experience will be the teacher. The ASA strives to keep the rules uniform throughout the world.

New umpires coming through the recreation departments in San Jose, Santa Clara, Gilroy and Palo Alto, or by way of the Metro Official Association that handles the rest of the north county, should consider the challenge with determination.

Emphasizing the "knowledge of the rules," is Merle Butler's goal, because his rewards have been anything but dubious.

Youth football sign-ups set

THE CAMPBELL-Saratoga Youth Football League will be holding sign-ups for the 1980 PAL football season each Wednesday night, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., at Sambo's restaurant, located at San Tomas Aquino rd. and Campbell ave.

Sign-ups will continue through April 2.

Youngsters, ages eight to 15, are eligible to play. There is a $20 registration fee.

Close games highlight women's soccer tourney

THE BAY AREA Women Soccer League's Kelly Cup Tournament culminated in one of the most exciting weekends of soccer, with three of the four championship games decided by just one goal.

Beginning with 32 teams, 16 local and 16 from outside the area, the battle narrowed down to two teams in each of the four divisions in the finals.

In the top-rated Gold division, a team from Oakland, the Players, pulled out a 2-1 victory over the San Jose Athena by a shootout goal.

The Bronze division, which is the weaker sister of the Gold, saw a San Jose team, the Swarm, win 1-0 over O'Sheas from San Francisco.

On the other side of Kelly Cup play was the Silver division champion Failsafe, defeating Phoenix 1-0.

Unlike Failsafe's fight for a goal, the minor division team Freedom had a two goal cushion in its Copper division win over Starting Line.

All four Silver and Copper division teams were from San Jose.

The June 14 and 15 event was attended by former Earthquake John Rowlands, according to chairperson Charlotte Timmermans.

BAWSL is still registering interested participants for the fall soccer season beginning Sunday, Sept. 7. Contact Bud Heck, treasurer, at 629-7650, or Robin Schott, commissioner, at 378-4548 for information.

Drivers gun for points at Pacific Coast Run-offs

THE SPORTS Car Club of America's regional championships at Laguna Seca Raceway top the list of motor sports events coming up during the month of July.

The competition will be for points toward SCCA's Pacific Coast Road Racing Championnship Run-offs and will be held on the weekend of July 12-13 beginning at 8 a.m. each day.

Other SCCA events include the annual Concours d'Elegance de Lafayette on Sunday, July 13, at Acalanes high school in Lafayette. For further information, call (415) 232-7226. The San Francisco region's Solo I time trials for SCCA-licensed drivers will be held at Laguna Seca on July 19.

On the home front, San Jose Speedway will be presenting its regular Saturday night racing card throughout the month, with meets planned for July 12, 19 and 26. For those who enjoy their action hot and muddy, Fremont Raceway off of Highway 17 returns with its mini-stock program on Friday, July 11, at 8 p.m. Racing continues at the "FreWay" through September 26.

The Formula Ford Challenge series at Golden State (formerly Sears Point) Raceway continues with race three at the Sonoma track on July 25-27. Gates open each day at 8 a.m. For further information, call (707) 938-8448.

Red Sox claim Moreland crown

IT WENT right down to the final inning of the final game of the season, but the Tire Outlet Red Sox wrapped up the minor division championship of the Moreland Bobby Sox league last week.

The Red Sox, champs of the second half after beating the Lowery and Little Mets in a one-game play-off, had to face the Boat Emporium Dodgers, champs of the first half, in a best of three play-off to determine the league championship.

The Sox won the first game 25-21 but the Dodgers came back to win the second 16-15 to force the third and deciding game.

In that final game, the Red Sox posted a very close 15-14 decision to win the league crown.

Members of the championship Red Sox team that finished the season with a 14-6 record included Shannon Bernarding, Michelle Boyd, Juli Carmody, Danielle Graybill, Edith Hamilton, Tammy Herford, Stacey Schiffman, Monique Serrano, Shelley Serrano, Karen Tollmer, Tina Torres, Michelle Wilson and Marci Wydenes. Barbara Wilson was the team's manager and Vience Serrano and Greg Bernarding were the coaches. Pat Serrano was the chaperone.

A year older

SAN Francisco Giant pitching ace Vida Blue will turn 31-years-old July 28.

Rodeo set for Palace

IF YOU'VE ever wondered how San Francisco's Cow Palace received its name, get ready for this year's running of the 36th annual Grand National Horse Show, Rodeo and Livestock Exposition, slated to run from October 24 through November 2.

The Cow Palace, better known for its sporting events and rock concerts, once each year stages the Grand National, the largest exposition of its kind west of the Mississippi. The 1980 renewal will award $185,000 for winners in the various show categories, making it the richest Grand National ever.

Entry information is available by calling (415) 584-2480, or by writing to: Cow Palace Horse Show Office, Box 34206, San Francisco (94134).

Hardcourt tourney

THE United States Tennis Association's 1980 junior national hardcourt championships are now in progress at the San Jose Racquet Club, 1170 Pedro Street, San Jose.

The tournament is one of three championships required for players to earn a national rating, and highlights the top young tennis players in the country. The matches are open to public through the opening rounds. A $2 admission will be charged for the finals over the weekend of July 12-13.

Further information on the tourney is available by calling 297-0067.

'Fireworks' in store for Speedway fans

THE FOURTH of July holiday may have been celebrated last Friday, but that doesn't mean that all of the fireworks are over for 1980. There will be more fireworks this Saturday night at the San Jose Speedway Fairgrounds.

But that's really nothing unusual — there are fireworks displays every Saturday night when the super modifieds and stock cars get together for their weekly double-header show on the dirt oval at the Fairgrounds.

It won't be a formal display of Roman Candles, firey fountains and Smokey Joe's, but rather there will be fireworks on the track as Nick Rescino of Sunnyvale and Ray Morgan try to maintain their San Jose points leads.

The speedsters took the July 4th weekend off in San Jose in order to concentrate on the Firecracker 100 in Watsonville Friday, but they will return in force this Saturday for the 6 p.m. time trials and 7 p.m. races. The gates open at 5 p.m.

RIGHT NOW it's John Viel and Vern Anderson of Campbell who are hot as firecrackers in their respective divisions at the Speedway, but the two still trail the point leaders.

Viel is second to Rescino in the super modified points parade, but is closing in on the leader after winning his second straight main event on June 28.

Viel upped his point total to 246 with his third feature win of the year and Rescino, who finished third in the main, is first at 268.

Brent Kaeding of Campbell was second in the main event and is fourth in the standings at 219, right behind third place Mike Sargent of San Jose who is third at 222.

Nick Ringo of San Jose was fourth in the main with Billy Yon fifth, Mike Damron of San Jose sixth, Joe Bailey seventh, Scott Murray of Campbell eighth, Ron Wipperman ninth and Jim Perry jr. 10th.

MURRAY, WIPPERMAN, Andy Taylor of San Jose and Nick Foster of San Jose qualified for the Johnny Key Memorial race set for July 26 with their finishes in the main. That ups the field of qualifiers for the Key to 16 with two weeks of qualifying remaining.

B. Kaeding posted the fast time of the night at 15.683 and Yon won the three-lap trophy dash at 45.29 with Rescino second, B. Kaeding third and Viel fourth.

Jerry Freitas of San Jose won the 12-lap semi-main with Ken Bowman of San Jose second, Boyd Schauer third, Art McCarthy of San Jose fourth and Pat Holton of San Jose fifth.

Duane Larson of San Jose, who flipped two weeks ago in what was described as the worst flip in the short history of modified racing at the Fairgrounds, won the C-race with Dick Teall of Santa Clara second, Roger Fodsdick third, Louie Leon of San Jose fourth and Ralph Ringo of San Jose fifth.

Bob Bakeman of San Jose flipped in the main event and Howard Kaeding of Campbell broke his clutch in time trials.

Anderson, a winner of a pair of back-to-back dashes trophy in the stock car division, won the feature race on June 28 to jump into the heat of the 1980 points race at the Speedway.

ANDERSON won what was called "one of the most competitive races of the season" in the main, leading for almost half of the 50-lap feature.

It was Anderson's first career win at the Fairgrounds in the stock circuit and his first San Jose win since winning at the old Speedway back in 1977.

Bob Benge was second to Anderson with Joe Esperanca of San Jose third, Larry "Stonewall" Jackson of San Jose fourth, Morgan fifth, Jeff Barron of Los Gatos sixth, Charlie Hall seventh, Steve Burgess eighth, Bill Heiser of San Jose ninth and Dave Perry jr. of San Jose 10th.

Scott Williamson had the night's quick time at 18.781 and Dave Byrd of Los Gatos won the trophy dash at 57.92 with Bruce Curl second, Williamson third and Benge fourth.

Frank Roman of San Jose notched his first NASCAR career victory when he won the semi-main with Rick Jones of San Jose second, Ken Guilbert third, George Oberle of San Jose fourth and Wayne Hagemier of San Jose fifth.

Lesser known sports earn spotlight in Santa Clara- hosted World Games

ATTEMPTING to make up for years of neglect, athletes the world over will come together in 1981.

The first World Games featuring non-Olympic events will be hosted by the City of Santa Clara. Sports like roller skating, badminton and Tae Kwon Do will demonstrate their finest moments, and also elevate the quest for world harmony through athletics.

The Executive Council of World Games, which consists of representatives from the participating sports, have chosen Santa Clara because of its strong civic leadership and facilities within the department of Parks and Recreation under the direction of Earl Carmichael.

These games will be one of the greatest sports extravaganzas in Bay Area history, predicts the Games organizers.

National and international television coverage is being negotiated for the Games.

"There will be network coverage," Carmichael said. "Which network has not yet been determined."

The cost of this event will be helped by the funding from national and international corporations such as Chevron, Arco and Coca Cola, under the direction of 1968 decathlon champion Bill Toomey.

TOOMEY, a top-rated AAU track and field member of the Santa Clara Valley Youth Village Track and Field Teams from 1964-66, will use his promotional expertise as International Marketing Director to sell the World Game concept to large businesses for sponsor privileges.

All financial rewards from these efforts will offset the burden on the city.

Every country that belongs to the International Sports Federation will be eligible to participate in the Games provided they win in their regional districts.

Each sport federation will determine how regional winners are to be judged.

In an attempt to depict internationalism, the opening ceremonies will have participants march by sport and not country.

There will be no flags raised or national anthems played, according to Un Yong Kim, Executive Committee President from Korea.

Elaborate closing ceremonies will also be omitted so that those who complete their competition early can leave for home.

The World Games concept developed from the General Assembly of the International Sports Federation, at their meeting in Lucerne, Switzerland on June of 1974.

Because of the inability to expand the Olympics, which would have become overly expensive, non-Olympic sports federations such as the International Softball Federation, under the leadership of Secretary Don Porter of Oklahoma City, wanted to expand the scope of athletic fellowship.

Therefore, World Games was not established as an Olympic alternative, or to compete with any existing International competition.

GAMES ROLE — Former Olympic decathlon gold medal winner Bill Toomey will play a key role in the upcoming World Games to be held in Santa Clara in 1981.

Giants set for series with Pads

THE San Francisco Giants, rested from Major League Baseball's four-day All-Star break, return to National League action Thursday night at Candlestick Park when they host the San Diego Padres in a game that can be heard over KNBR radio (68).

The KNBR broadcast will begin with a pre-game show at 7:10 p.m. Lindsey Nelson and Hank Greenwald will share the play-by-play duties.

The Giants and Padres will close out their two-game series with a rare Friday afternoon game, set to start at 1:05 p.m.

Following their series with the Padres, the Giants will begin a 12-game road trip that will include stops in Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Chicago.

The tensioner retaining bolt for the timing belt on my Honda fell out and caused the engine to skip time and run poorly. The repairs cost $274.14. The car had only 20,000 miles on the odometer at the time and Honda did not respond to my letter requesting that all or some of the repair costs be borne by the factory. How can I get them to communicate with me?

Bill Anderson,
Palo Alto

Issue a letter of demand that states what you want in terms of dollars, why you want it, (product liability) and what you will do if you don't get it.

Initiate a small claims court action. It's fun, easy and affordable. You have many rights beyond the limited factory warranty and our courts are exemplary in their knowledge and adjudications regarding these rights. We'll even help you with your letter of demand and steer you through the court process.

The only way I see to protect my hard earned money and receive a quality return on my money is through deeds of trust. What's your opinion on this particular investment?

Donna Sinclair,
San Jose

Second deeds of trust have a potential for loss as a direct function of our declining business climate. Money market accounts or investment in single family residence income properties in solid neighborhoods seems to be the best way to receive a reasonable return on your investment. The secure factor becomes more important each day deeper into our recession.

We are shopping the lots for used cars and find the dealers over eager to sell. We also notice a definite price variation on the larger cars that wasn't there a few months ago. Some of the dealers are advertising "under book prices." What should we look for to determine what we really should be paying?

Anita Waddel,
Cupertino

All car dealers are having trouble "selling the heavies." It's a buyer's market for a change with the blue book price no longer a strict determining factor. We have seen cars with a $3,500 low blue book price going for under $2,000. The buyer has the upper hand — don't part with any more dollars than necessary.

Send for our new publication "Buying the New or Used Car." It costs you $1.00 and a stamped self addressed legal size envelope. Enclose a note stating which publication you want.

Send all mail for this column to Consumers United, P.O. Box 311, Palo Alto, CA. 94302 or call 494-1858 for consumer advice.

Joint appeal by two groups

United Way of Santa Clara County has announced the Santa Clara County Unit of the American Cancer Society will participate in the United Way's 1980 fund-raising campaign as a result of a contract signed recently by the two organizations.

The contract guarantees an allotment of $250,000 to the local unit of the Cancer Society, with payments to begin January 1981 and continue monthly until June 1982. The contract will be renegotiated before April 1 of each year, beginning in April, 1982.

According to United Way President George Clausen, president of Gilroy Foods, "This contract, like the one United Way entered into last year with the Santa Clara County Chapter of the American Heart Association, is an effort on the part of United Way to be flexible enough to respond to the needs of national health agencies in a way that meets their need for a national as well as local perspective on research, education and service, and at the same time, meet United Way's accountability requirements."

Herbert Crawford, a Santa Clara County rancher and volunteer president of the Santa Clara County Unit of the American Cancer Society, said, "We think the single campaign concept in industry is a good one, and we are pleased to be cooperating with United Way in this year's campaign in business and industry."

While the Cancer Society will not solicit in business and industry and under the terms of the contract, other types of fund-raising efforts, including national observance of April as Cancer Control Month, are not affected by the contract.

Breast cancer info

WOMEN who have had a mastectomy may get information about breast reconstruction through a pilot study undertaken by the California Division of the American Cancer Society.

Women who are interested in getting information should call the Santa Clara County unit at 287-5973.

The society stresses that the information service is "not intended to endorse the (breast reconstruction) procedure for every woman who has had a mastectomy, but rather to supply objective information so women can make the best decision for themselves."

The society can supply questions and answer brochures on breast reconstruction and arrange for a woman to talk with a volunteer who has experienced reconstruction.

Project Echo offerings told

Three new workshops begin in July at Project Echo, 19848 Prospect Road in Saratoga. They include:

• "Combating Depression," July 9, 7:30-9:30 p.m., a four-week series which emphasizes overcoming depression through understanding its causes and getting in touch with inner strength;

• "New Directions in Employment," July 10, 7-9 p.m., a five-week series, focusing on career and planning for those re-entering the labor market and those seeking a more satisfying career;

For more information about any of these workshops, call 253-9475 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Bill aimed at cleaning up 'junkyard' of overturned convictions

"A giant junkyard" littered with overturned convictions is how one state Court of Appeal justice describes the California judicial system.

Many fairly and properly convicted criminals reap the benefit of high court decisions that apply retroactively to similar cases, according to Justice Robert K. Puglia, "not because justice requires it but because chance has ordained it."

"The controversy over retroactive court decisions has been raging for decades," notes Sen. John Garimendi, D-Stockton, "and has become even more heated in the last five years as it is applied in some cases, not in others and half in others."

Garimendi, along with some other legislators, thinks it's time to put a clamp on the ability of the state Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal to make sweeping decisions apply retroactively in criminal cases. Two proposed constitutional amendments, SCA 38 by Garimendi, and ACA 53 by Assemblyman Alister McAlister, D-Milpitas, would restrict the application of judicial decision to the cases specifically before the court, except when the basic constitutional right is involved.

Proponents of the amendments, which were drafted with the support of the Attorney General's office, repeatedly hold up two recent court decisions which they cite as "glaring examples" of how retroactivity is abused.

One case involves former Symbionese Liberation Army member Russell Little, who was convicted in 1975 of killing Oakland School Superintendent Marcus Foster. As a result of the state Supreme Court's Gainer decision, which threw out a set of previously used jury instructions, Little's conviction was overturned and he was granted a new trial.

In another case, the Drew decision, the court discarded the old insanity test that had been used for decades in California and instituted a new test for insanity in criminal cases. That decision means at least 300 cases could possibly be retried, according to Assistant Attorney General Rod Blonian.

"In many cases the Supreme Court is saying there's not really anything terrible about the old law. It's just saying the new one is better," Blonian maintains.

Retroactive court decisions over picayune details of courtroom procedure and rules of evidence "helps further bog down the court system," Blonian says.

In addition, "since local district attorneys already have cases coming out of their ears," he noted, "in many cases they resort to plea bargains" — a practice which ultimately allows already convicted criminals to get off with lesser sentences the second time around.

And perhaps the argument closest to the taxpayer's heart is the expense of such retrials. Although Blonian says "it's difficult to hand a price tag" on the amendment, he points out the retrial of Russell Little will cost an estimated $600,000, whereas the insanity test decision "could cost millions of dollars in retrials."

Garimendi's amendment, which has already been approved by the Senate, will come up for a crucial hearing June 30, along with McAlister's, before the notoriously tough hurdle of the Assembly Criminal Justice Committee.

Assemblyman Elihu Harris, D-Oakland, who sits on that committee, voices strong opposition to the amendments.

"The California Supreme Court for the most part is responsible," Harris said. "I don't want to see unnecessary restrictions placed on the court. Personally, I'm more trusting of the courts than the legislative process — especially in the area of civil liberties.

Harris disparages the arguments that retroactive decisions over such miniscule issues as courtroom procedures are costing unnecessary millions of dollars.

"I'm not interested in looking at a potential decision based on costs," Harris says. "Some people say that because of the cost justice it's better to let some of the innocent be convicted rather than the reverse theory of letting a few guilty go free in order to save an innocent person.

"As far as I'm concerned, there's no price on justice."

Not surprisingly, the amendments have run up against a strong block of resistance from trial lawyers and public defenders.

Chief State Public Defender Charles Sevilla of Los Angeles calls it a "crazy, ridiculous amendment" that would "lead to a lot of inequity and unequal application of the law." Passage of such an amendment would mean that "people similarly situated wouldn't be similarly treated," Sevilla says, "and that to me is crazy."

"There are fundamental rights that ought to be applied forwards and backwards to everybody."

Sevilla claims that the amendment actually is the result of only two cases — the Drew and Gainer decisions. "When you study the decisions of the California Supreme Court over the last few years, there were only five controversial decisions regarding criminal convictions," he says. "None was fully retroactive. Three were given ultra-limited retroactivity and only Gainer and Drew were given limited retroactivity.

"This bill is overkill."

With Bea Rene'

Step into this exciting new 10,500 sq. ft. restaurant for an evening of sheer joy and relaxation . . . you'll find the service to be excellent, the decor is outstanding, and the food? Well, you'll have to try it for yourself. You'll soon agree with me that it is one of the better restaurants in the entire Santa Clara County.

The Rusty Scupper is expertly operated and managed by Borel Restaurant Corporation. Gary Kapchinske, exhibiting a successful 10 year track record with Borel Corporation, is the general manager.

The talented executive chef is none other than handsome Coach Sherlock who brings the same fine culinary skills to The Scupper as he does to Borel's Restaurant in San Mateo. These restaurants are remarkably similar in design — very modern and angular — built on different levels. Borel's does have a view, but in The Scupper, one doesn't need the view since the great hospitality, the great food and simply an admiration of the decor keeps one busy and satisfied. It is set in a spacious lakeside setting, surrounded by a multitude of hanging and standing plants — beauty personified!

In keeping with the nautical theme, the menu is offered on a huge paddle and includes entrees ranging from succulent steaks to daily selections of fresh fish — all served with salad, soup and sourdough bread. I chose the steak and Alaskan king crab legs and I highly recommend you do the same. Also tempting was Teriyaki shrimp, scallops Florentine, Teriyaki, and Scupper specials. A special children's menu is also available.

Dinners are served 7 days a week: Mondays through Thursdays from 5:30-10 p.m.; Fridays and Saturdays from 5:30-11 p.m.; and Sundays from 4:00-9 p.m. Major credit cards accepted.

Happy Hour? You bet! Happy Hour with delectable hot hors d'oeuvres, operates from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Lunch: Served from 11:00 to 2:30 p.m. It always features a fresh fish of the day, as well as delicious daily specials, sandwiches and salads. A new luncheon feature is the scrumptious Deli, open daily from 11:00-3 p.m.

More decor: The light, airy interior of natural fir wood is highlighted by expanses of multi-level spaces, a combination of hand-painted tile and wood parquet tables, plus massive high-beamed ceilings looming above terra cotta tiled floors — all in monochromatic, earthtoned colors.

The bar-lounge: Handsomely designed — on the lower level — creating a warm, cozy living room setting with wicker couches enhanced by tufted, Indian print cushions.

Situated nearby, on a raised elevation below the mezza nine, is the dining area, with the ambience of a garden patio.

Have I whetted your appetite and curiosity enough to make you want to drive right over to The Rusty Scupper today or tonight? It's easy to find — just off Highway 101 on Lawrence Expressway, turn at Oakmead Parkway (right beside the new Hilton Hotel). Ample parking.

The Rusty Scupper, 1235 Oakmead Parkway, Sunnyvale. Telephone (408) 245-2911.

CANDLELIGHT - FOOTLIGHTS - FLASHES:
Lots of 'bouquets' for Chez Yvonne, which is without a doubt one of the best French restaurants in Los Altos-Mt. View. See you at their spectacular Happy Hour Mon.-Fri. 4-6 p.m. — hot hors d'oeuvres, well drinks $1.25, & they pour 2 oz. 'on the rocks' drinks! . . . Enjoyed a mouthwatering lunch at Spencer's last week, where their daily special was roast turkey & dressing (my favorite). Good home type cooking in a lovely decor (a magnificent tree spreads over the entire dining room — honest!) Jerry Evans plays organ for dancing nights . . . Portola Valley Kitchen is only a little over a year old but already is popular — good reason — the food is good, cocktails available, specializing in fresh fish . . . Handsome Lorenzo Orlando, general manager of the pretty Pinehurst Inn wants it known that this Inn is not for sleeping, but for dining. (That should stop those telephone reservations for a room with a bath and waterbed) . . . which brings to mind the story told by charming Martin Newman, one of the owners of the new Palo Alto Scott's Seafood Grill & Bar. After their grand opening, he proclaimed it a huge success, since he observed three Mercedes Benz left in the parking lot for three days — yes, indeed! . . . If you enjoy visiting a Sushi Bar, real & authentic, Gifu Restaurant has one with a large selection . . . Rumor has it that the Black Oak restaurant is soon to become a Mexican Restaurant . . . Ole' . . .

COUNTRY WESTERN MANIA:
Couldn't believe my eyes and ears last Saturday night when friends & I stopped by The Drydock, Los Altos, to find Country Western Star "HANK LARSON" performing for a delighted crowd of fans. My favorite was his rendition of 'Clear Water' — and the enthusiastic audience joined in on many choruses. Hope he'll remain a regular here, though understand his manager may have booked him for several gigs at 'Mac's' & other local spots . . .

NEVADA CALLS: Rich Little and Buddy Greco will be appearing at the Sahara Tahoe July 1-14. A great combination . . . If you've ever wanted to go on an African safari, now's your chance, and it costs about $10. at the Sahara Reno's Opera House Theatre where "Ipi-Tombi," the all-African musical is playing thru July 12 . . . the Reno Action Special offered by the Mapes Hotel is a sure winner! Complimentary cocktail show at the Money Tree with discounts and fun pkg. all included with your room for only $39.95 . . . I saw Liz Damon in Hawaii and she is now appearing at the MGM Grand, Reno with her back up group, the Orient Express — great . . . Had a wonderful visit at John Ascuaga's NUGGET Hotel & Casino last week. My accommodations were great — the shows were so entertaining. Dinner in the Celebrity Room was sheer heaven (very gourmet). My group were very entertained by the Oak Ridge Boys, a Country-Western group with lots of talent. Red Skelton follows on July 17 . . . Why don't you try your luck in Nevada? Mine was great!

The bard comes to Saratoga

The bard comes to the hamlet of Saratoga this month when the first Valley Shakespeare Festival opens at the historic Paul Masson Mountain Winery.

A traditional Elizabethan production of "The Taming of the Shrew" kicks off the festival on July 11, 12 and 13. It's followed on August 1, 2 and 3 by "Much Ado About Nothing," set in the chic Noel Coward style of the 1930's. The festival is produced by Valley Institute of Theatre Arts.

Gala opening night benefits on July 11 and August 1 include a supper on the terrace in a mountain Villa setting at 6:30, followed by pre-show entertainment and a wine-tasting and champagne party after the show with the director and cast.

For ticket information, call the festival office at 257-9472.

It's a scene from "The Taming of the Shrew." Kate, played by Rhonda Zirkle, complains to her unsympathetic father, played by E. Kerrigan Prescott.

Recreation especially for shut-ins

The City of Sunnyvale is sponsoring a program aimed at Senior Citizens who rarely get a chance to leave their homes. The program offers a wide variety of activities such as: guest speakers, armchair exercises, films, games, conversation, and numerous other activities.

The program is held at the Sunnyvale Community Center, 550 E. Remington Drive, Sunnyvale, on Wednesday mornings from 10:00 a.m.-12 noon. Interested Seniors who would like to become involved in this program, and meet new friends and get out of the house for a change, should contact the Senior Office at the Sunnyvale Community Center at 738-5521. Transportation is available.

Late suppers are served at the exciting French restaurant, CHEZ YVONNE. New owners, Glenn Dennee', Matt Chan & Karel Wong serve dinner Mon.-Sat. 5:30-11 p.m.; lunch is served Mon.-Sat. 11:30-2:30 p.m. (I'm always on the lookout for a good Sat. lunch spot!) The decor reflects the same attractive Gallic charm — bright & festive. There's banquet/party facilities (6-150). Even a dance floor & private bar. Many of the same employees have been retained, & you'll find the same good crowd enjoying the friendly hospitality & delicious cuisine. Happy Hour is now Mon.-Fri. 4-6 p.m. featuring hot hors d'oeuvres & all well drinks $1.25. (They pour 2 oz. 'on the rocks' drinks.) A generous restaurant.

FISHERMAN'S VILLAGE restaurant in Cupertino serves a great "Early Bird dinner." Chef/Owner Eduardo prepares excellent specialties for only $4.95 which are served daily 4-6 p.m. Happy Hour is also from 4-6, all well drinks only 75¢ so make a note of this. Remember "Yuki" the pretty Japanese lady who is so talented at the piano? She is back playing in the FISHERMAN'S VILLAGE lounge for your dancing & listening pleasure. So why don't you stop by for a fine evening of dining & entertainment?

SCOTTS SEAFOOD GRILL & BAR has already become a huge success at it's location, 2300 E. Bayshore Ave., P.A. (across from Mings). The decor is simply lovely. Since I have visited SCOTT'S put this on your list immediately. It's light & airy & so attractive & the service is excellent, but best of all the food is the epitome of quality — fr. seafood served gourmet style — one reason that SCOTTS SEAFOOD GRILL & BAR in S.F. has become a phenomenal success at its opening in the 70's. Efficient Charles Capello is the Mgr. & handsome Martin Newman is one of the owners who drives between restaurants to make certain that everything has the same principals as its predecessors — w/one exception — customers will be able to make reservations. This has already become a peninsula favorite — mine included!

I've discovered that the very debonair Henry Schiro, Mgr. of the GARDEN CITY is also an entertainer & plays the piano at times if coaxed. I bet he sits in on Sun. when they have their famous Jam Sessions commencing at 9 p.m. I'm definitely going to stop by to find out. I do enjoy dining at this restaurant where they feature entertainment thruout dinner & afterwards thruout the evening. It's a lovely cozy setting & the decor is simply stunning. If you haven't vistied the GARDEN CITY, you're truly in for a treat & a big surprise. You won't believe that a supper club such as this exists in the S.J./Cupertino area.

THE ECHO in Los Altos offers daily specs. for only $3.25 for lunch which incls. soup or salad, potatoes & vegetables. Take the office crowd to an inexpensive luncheon where they can order their favorite martini & enjoy the ECHO in its creekside atmosphere. The lunch menu incls. N.Y. steak & mushrooms — a tender $3.95 prime rib can also be ordered. The same fine lunch specials are offered for $3.95 nightly & are served throughout the dinner hour till closing. Keep your pocketbook happy!

For a lovely country dinner visit the PORTOLA VALLEY KITCHEN at 884 Portola Rd. Nestled amongst the redwoods, it's only 1½ yrs. old & specializes in seafood — dinners incl. cioppino, sand dabs, Rex sole, sea bass & other available fr. fish. Cocktails are served & there's a Sun. Champagne & Seafood Brunch for only $5.95 from 10-3. Lunch is served 11-3, dinner from 5-10. Here's a new one to put on your list of must visits.

Keep celebrating the 4th of July by the popping of champagne corks Mon., Tues., & Wed. evenings at SIRLOIN & BREW UNLIMITED. These dinner houses are located all over the bay area & on Mon. they'll be serving champagne in addition to complimentary bottles of chablis or burgundy wine or cold pitchers of beer or sangria. There is also an unlimited salad bar, french bread & butter, baked potato with whipped butter & other toppings. You may enjoy this sumptuous feast for only $4.89 per person. Unbelievable!

If you've always had a secret desire to become a singing star, the Celebrity Lounge of the PRIME RIB INN is your kind of place. Owner Lou Torres spent a bundle on the sound & lighting systems & keyboard artist Margie Bin, who hosts the nightly songfests, encourages patrons to "get into the act." So when you pick up the mike & step into the spotlight, you're the star, enjoying the applause & adulation of an appreciative audience. But even if your own vocalizing is limited to singing in the shower, stop by the PRIME RIB INN tonight; you'll have a great time!

Many diners are probably unaware that CHEF CHU'S attractive restaurant has enlarged to accommodate many more diners than previously — the new upstairs 9 Dragon Dining Room is very elegant & there are separate banquet rooms also. There is even a small cocktail lounge near the entrance. CHEF CHU'S recently celebrated their 10th anniversary & have been giving the same hospitable service since they opened — no wonder they're so popular. Why don't you stop by and meet Larrence Chu and crew soon? Enjoy a fine dinner!

The hospitality of pretty Jan Martin is reflected thruout JAN'S VALLEY INN in Portola Valley where you'll enjoy selections from a menu which includes such specialities as: rack of lamb, teriyaki steak, mahi mahi, steak & seafood. Dinners incl. a trek to their bathtub salad bar & hot fresh bread. There's a full bar/lounge that's always lively. Remember JAN'S VALLEY INN serves a marvelous Sun. Brunch — keep this in mind this summer when you'd enjoya lovely drive in the country.

The elegant RUBY KING restaurant is owned & operated by the Shing Jim family, who have other restaurants in Singapore, Hong Kong & Taipei. They serve the same fine authentic cuisine in the Los Altos RUBY KING as they do in the Orient & I personally enjoyed a fine dinner last Saturday night. RUBY KING serves dim sum lunches with specialties on the weekend. (Remember, they're open for lunch Sat. & Sun). If you're looking for a good restaurant to enjoy on a Monday night, RUBY KING's is always busy. Here's a good dining tip.

Ever get the yearning for some good Italian cuisine? If so, step into PALO ALTO JOE'S — this restaurant has a sister in S.F. (West Portal Joe's) & both restaurants have developed a following which covers the entire Peninsula from S. F. south. PALO ALTO JOE'S is located just off Bayshore #101 at the San Antonio exit (you can see it from the freeway). Mike Vargas & his family give every dish lots of TLC &, believe me, you'll enjoy a fine Italian meal — why don't you try it?

The 94TH AERO SQUADRON takes pride in presenting many new features for their patrons . . . for instance: every Tues. nite is "Nuts & Bolts Nite," the gentlemen get a bolt & the ladies get a nut, if they can find the right match, they "get a free drink." Wed. is Ladies nite & single gals pay only 90¢ for cocktails. Thurs. is Twilight Happy Hour w/easy listening mellow jazz 5:30-7:30 p.m. Also on Thurs. — Beat the Clock —. Drink prices start low & increase as the evening progresses — what a boon for big or fast drinkers — be sure to arrive early!

Nancy Corlay, the attractive and very hospitable owner of the ESTRELLITA, welcomes everyone to an exciting experience in dining, "a la Mexicana." This restaurant has been serving the public for many, many years, and Nancy is dedicated to upholding the traditions and standards that have been established so successfully. The ESTRELLITA still serves the great burrito — a gourmet's delight — for only $3.75 for lunch; $4.25 dinner. Open every day except Sun. A great Mexican hideaway.

At the FISHMARKET restaurants all the fish is deboned, filleted & cooked over a mesquite charcoal broiler — Mexican style. This adds a delicious flavor to the wonderful freshness. You can even watch the fish cooking which adds a unique touch. The P.A. outlet serves beer & wine while the Snvl. restaurant incls. an intimate bar/lounge & an Oyster Bar. Both feature retail fish markets where you can take your favorite fish home to cook for the whole family. Here's a great restaurant.

Creative juices flow, Gemini

July 12 through July 18

ARIES (March 21-April 19): The Moon is new, Aries, but the script is as old as Methuselah. Think twice before you go 'round the prickly pear with local pinhead. Better yet, think thrice. Busy week ends with a holler.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20): New Moon means new challenge, new chapter, new chance. If Leo the Lion comes pussyfooting into your pasture, Taurus, keep sardines hidden and tuna under lock and key. Week ends with a wink.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Creative juices flow freely. Get ideas nailed down on paper before they float away on a summer breeze. Libra the Lover may saunter into view before week is over, so stay awake, stay alert and stay available.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Cycle continues high. Make plans, make book, make bold. Restriction is lifted, energy peaks and love looms. Friendly Virgo arrives on scene and stimulates more than just your imagination. Week ends with a sigh.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Cycle high. New Moon in your sign is favorable time for new friendship, new freedom, new kind of fun. Just don't overdo. Remember, Leo, enough is as good as a feast. In fact, it's better. Week of indulgence ends with a burp.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Study Cancer message. Moon enters your sign (the 15th) and high cycle begins. Messages highlighted. Written, wired and whispered. Cancer the Crab crawls into view and week of excitement ends with a pinch and a promise. You glow.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Mars settles down into your sign this week, Libra, and feels right at home. You assert, assess and assign. Others are willing to do your bidding. Moon enters your sign (the 17th) and high cycle begins. It seems you can do no wrong. Well, hardly any wrong.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): New Moon favors new passion, new pattern, new path. Time ideal to throw duds into a flee bag and bug out. Head for the hills, Scorp, for a change is as good as a rest. As weary week wiggles to a close, open heart but close wallet.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): When dealing with foe, avoid sharp putdown. Instead, be soft and sweet. An overdose of sugar is more effective (and deadly) than a drop of vinegar. You'll see.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Cycle low. If you feel that you need more 'space' then consider getting rid of excess baggage. Pitch! Toss! Throw! But first clear the exits. Week of contemplation ends with a promise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Cycle low. Avoid snap judgments. The King of Hearts is wild this week so play cards close to chest. As week shuffles to a close you fold.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): After bumpy beginning Moon sinks into Virgo (your opposite) and low cycle starts. Postpone important decisions, Pisces, and ignore tempting bait. Hide in the shallows until week is over.

Meredith adds 3 Albuquerque papers to its holdings

Meredith Corporation, owners of Meredith Sun Newspapers in Santa Clara County, has entered into an agreement to purchase Modern Press Inc. of Albuquerque, N.M.

Modern Press publishes three weekly newspapers with a combined circulation of 110,000 and is the largest commercial printer in the state.

Meredith did not disclose the purchase price of the New Mexico company.

Thomas E. Lewis, who had been the major stockholder of Modern Press, will continue as publisher of the newspapers.

Fred Stines, a vice president of Meredith's Publishing Group and general manager of book and newspaper publishing, said his company was attracted to Albuquerque by the growth of the area.

Stines said Modern Press would operate as a part of the Meredith Newspapers unit.

The newspapers published by Modern Press are the Albuquerque News, the Valencia County News-Bulletin and Focus, a paper that serves Kirtland Air Force Base near Albuquerque.

In addition to the Albuquerque-area papers and the 18 weekly newspapers Meredith publishes in Santa Clara County, the company owns 11 newspapers in the Los Angeles area.

The Des Moines, Iowa-based company also publishes magazines (including Apartment Life, Better Homes and Gardens, Sail and Successful Farming) and Better Homes and Gardens Books, and is engaged in contract printing, broadcasting and real estate marketing.

National Smoker Study:

94% Tout Merit Switch.

"Best tasting low tar I've tried," report MERIT smokers in latest survey.

Taste Quest Ends

Latest research provides solid evidence that MERIT is a satisfying long-term taste alternative to high tar cigarettes.

Long-Term Satisfaction: In the latest survey of former high tar smokers who have switched to MERIT, 9 out of 10 reported they continue to enjoy smoking, are glad they switched, and reported MERIT is the best tasting low tar they've ever tried!

Smoker Tests Offer More Proof

Blind Taste Tests: In tests where brand identity was concealed, a significant majority of smokers rated the taste of low tar MERIT as good as—or better than—leading high tar brands. Even cigarettes having twice the tar!

Smoker Preference: Among the 95% of smokers stating a preference, the MERIT low tar/good taste combination was favored 3 to 1 over high tar leaders when tar levels were revealed!

MERIT is the proven alternative to high tar smoking. And you can taste it.

Kings: 8 mg "tar," 0.6 mg nicotine—100's Reg: 10 mg "tar," 0.7 mg nicotine—100's Men: 11 mg "tar," 0.8 mg nicotine av. per cigarette, FTC Report Dec.'79

Santa Clara Valley REALTOR'S REVIEW

Enrico Crema has been recognized as an honorary life member of the California Association of Realtors.

Crema has been in real estate for 49 years. He was licensed in 1931.

Crema's nephew, Al, the San Jose Real Estate Board's membership chairman, presented the plaque at the board's June luncheon.

The CAR award is presented only to those members who are at least 75 years old and have been a member of the state association for 25 years or more.

In accepting the award, Crema said, "There is no better business, and it is also the most lucrative business. If you throw your heart into it, with the faith, you will never fail in this business."

The award has gone to only two other board members.

As of last Tuesday, July 1, the following information must appear on all contracts and agreements which initially set the commission to be paid to a real estate licensee for the sale of residential real property containing not more than four residential units: "NOTICE: The amount or rate of real estate commissions is negotiable and is not fixed by law. They are set by each broker individually and may be negotiable between the seller and broker."

CAR Ninth District communications committee chairwoman Sarah Elder, a member of the Palo Alto Board of Realtors, comments that California real estate commissions have always been negotiable and have never been set into law.

Two programs sponsored by the Los Altos Board of Realtors education committee were held in early July. Attorney at Law Frank Berry and Certified Public Accountant William Brown spoke Wednesday, July 2, on "The Starker Exchange — Dangers and Opportunities." Saratoga Realtor Frank Cuddy conducted a Bluebook Workshop yesterday. Both programs were held in the board office.

• • •

Another workshop on the Starker exchange is set by the Palo Alto Board of Realtors for Friday, July 25 at the Palo Alto Senior Center. The workshop is titled "How To and How Not to Make a Starker Deal Work With the I.R.S.," according to board education chairman Tim Anderson.

Realtors throughout Santa Clara County are signing up for the 76th Annual Convention of the National Association of Realtors, set for Sept. 27-30 in San Francisco.

The convention has been built specifically around the real estate market of today. Many sessions will deal with financing. Others will discuss how the "typical" real estate salesperson can survive in today's economic climate of high interest rates and other factors. All the speakers have been selected with an eye toward their ability to adapt to the changing times and give presentations which will address these subjects from the appropriate up-to-date point of view.

The staff at the Los Gatos-Saratoga Board of Realtor's office has unanimously elected Aileen Prince as the "Realtor With the biggest Heart."

A stray puppy sought refuge in the board office a few days ago and staff members couldn't bear the thought of taking her to the pound. The staffers asked each person who came into the office if they would be interested in having the puppy. Ms. Prince took the dog home at the end of the week to become a permanent part of the family.

The Investment and Exchange Committee of the Los Gatos-Saratoga Board of Realtors is sponsoring a trip to the meeting of the East Bay Marketing Group in Hayward.

The trip is set for this Friday. The group will leave at 8 a.m. from the Argonaut Shopping Center across the street from the board office, travel by chartered bus and return at about 1 p.m.

Seating is limited and the cost is $15 per person which includes transportation, meeting admission charge, a box lunch and beverages.

More information is available from the Los Gatos-Saratoga Board office, 867-0922.

The dramatic fall in April short-term interest rates gave rise to considerable speculation that mortgage rates and credit availability would improve over the next several months, according to the California Association of Realtors.

Having peaked at nearly 16 percent in March, six-month treasury notes were yielding less than 11 percent at the end of April. Similarly, 52-week treasury bills plunged to 10.44 percent at the April auction and the federal funds rate fell 16.25 percent from its 20-plus percent peak. These rates were generally the lowest experienced since early October of last year.
